

How to sort your waste

Food waste

Non edible leftovers

Teabags, coffee filters, coffee grounds

Bones from meat and fish

Bread, bakery and crumbs

Shell from nuts and eggs

Greasy paper towels

Environmentally friendly biofertilizer for agriculture and biogas for trucks and buses.

Garbage

Cooled ash and charcoal in bag, cigarette butts and candle remains

Potted plants and flowers

Diapers, cat sand and dog bags

Dirty plastic and paper

Crushed porcelain, ceramics and crystal

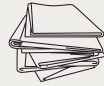

Plastic that is not packaging

Combustion to district heating and electricity.

Cardboard, paper and carton

Newspapers

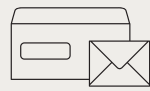

Advertising and magazines

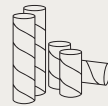

Beverage cartons

Packaging carton

Letters and envelopes

Kitchen- and toilet paper cores

New paper and cardboard.

Plastic packaging

Packaging only

Plastic bags

Cleaned plastic packaging

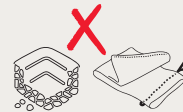

Plastic bottles and -cans, shampoo bottles

Plastic tubes

Flower pots

Not: Styrofoam and firewood sacks

New plastic products. Non recyclable plastic will be energy utilized.

Glass and metal packaging

Glass jars and bottles

Packaging made of glass or metal

Drinking cans

Forms and foil of aluminium

Metal lids

Not: Boilers, frying pans, drinking glasses and porcelain

New glass and metal products.

Must be delivered at a recycling station

Garden waste and christmas trees

Metals

Materials from building and tearing

Rocks, concrete, soil

Large cardboard

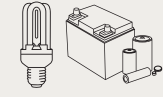

Styrofoam

Furniture and large units

Electronic units

Light bulbs and batteries

Hazardous Waste

Spray, glue, lacquer

Impregnated wood

Cleaning detergents

Oil residues